

Surfside^{Town} Gazette

9293 Harding Avenue

Surfside, Florida

August 2005

FROM THE MAYOR'S CORNER

Dear Surfsiders,

Summer in South Florida is here, and once again we face the potential for strong weather disturbances and the possibility of hurricanes. All the forecasters are predicting a very active season. The time to prepare is now, as plywood, flashlights, batteries, gasoline and water become scarce during a declared emergency. If you are elderly and infirm, and have special needs (e.g. the use of oxygen), please register now with the Surfside Police Department. If they are aware of your needs in advance of a storm, they will be better able to coordinate your evacuation with Miami-Dade County Emergency Operations personnel and the Special Needs Shelters. If your neighbor is elderly or infirm, verify that they have registered with the Surfside Police Department. Keep in mind that area shelters do not allow animals. Therefore, it is prudent to have an emergency plan for your pets prior to a storm situation. If you need further assistance in developing a hurricane evacuation plan, please feel free to contact me through e-mail (mayor@townofsurfsidefl.gov) or at Town Hall 305-861-4863. The Town website www.townofsurfsidefl.gov also provides a link to the County's Emergency Management website.

This issue of the Gazette ushers in the beginning of the 2005 - 2006 school year. Please be especially cautious when driving around our neighborhoods. Look out for our new, little pedestrians - they will not necessarily be looking for you! The Surfside Police Department is as committed as ever to ensuring our children's safety. Officers will continue to shadow the school buses and maintain vigilant patrol of our area streets, particularly during the hours when children are walking or riding, to and from, school.

SPECIAL COMMISSION MEETING

Tuesday, August 16, 2005 at 7:00 p.m.
regarding the
SURFSIDE COMMUNITY CENTER PROJECT

in the Auditorium
of the Surfside Community Center
9301 Collins Avenue

Surfside, Bay Harbor Islands and Bal Harbour have been collaborating on solutions to the 96th Street traffic situation. However, extra back-to-school vehicles may aggravate the roadway congestion. Please try and adjust your routes and schedules to accommodate the probability of a longer commute.

Be well and be safe,

Tim Will
Your Mayor

A Request of Surfside Residents For Historical Items

The Parks and Recreation Committee is starting to assemble material to create a historical town archive, including photos, documents, menus, etc. The Parks and Recreation Committee would like to ask anyone who has any items from Surfside's past to share them temporarily. The plan is to electronically archive or "digitize" the items for viewing access through the Town's website, not to keep them physically. Once the items are digitized they will be returned to their owners. Plans are also being considered for establishing a physical display, should anyone wish to donate an item permanently. Parks and Recreation Committee member, Marq Imberman has kindly taken on the task of overseeing the project. He may be contacted at 305-785-5062 to arrange for donations, digitizing or general information.
